ENJOY THE FESTIVE SEASON

Set in the heart of Zionsville Village, Brick Street Inn and Auberge des Artistes offer a warm setting for the festive season. Join us for dinner at Auberge, gather with friends and family, or settle in for a winter stay at the Inn.

Inside, fires are lit and the rooms dressed for Christmas, while Chef Craig Lewis and his team serve seasonal French cooking at Auberge. Beyond our doors, Main Street and the village are made for an after-dinner stroll, with Elm Street Green and the wooded paths of Creekside Park a little farther afield.

Come for dinner, stay for the night, or make a weekend of it.

FOOD & DRINK

Festive lunches, long dinners and drinks at the bar. Settle in for French favorites like steak frites, bœuf bourguignon and duck confit, alongside a well-stocked cellar and classic cocktails.

Save room for crème brûlée or chocolate mousse, and perhaps a digestif by the fire.

HOLIDAY PARTIES & PRIVATE DINING

Gather around the table this festive season. Auberge des Artistes and Brick Street Inn offer private dining for 8 to 50 guests, with seasonal menus from the Auberge kitchen.

The Chautauqua Room extends into the adjoining William Zion Library, complete with a fireplace, offering an elegant setting for holiday parties, intimate dinners, and larger celebrations. The space is also available for meetings, retreats, and weddings.

CHRISTMAS IN THE VILLAGE

During the holidays, Zionsville Village is especially inviting. Main Street glows with lights, shop windows are dressed for the season, and evenings bring festive gatherings, music and traditions throughout the village.

Come for lunch or dinner at Auberge, wander the shops, then return to the warmth of Brick Street Inn, a fire in the fireplace and a cozy room waiting upstairs.

WEDDINGS

For an intimate wedding in the heart of Zionsville Village, the Chautauqua Room offers a warm and elegant setting, with dinner and drinks catered by Auberge des Artistes.

The entire Brick Street Inn can also be reserved for you and your guests, allowing the celebration to unfold in one place, from dinner and Champagne to the morning after.

STAY AT BRICK STREET INN

Stay the night at Brick Street Inn, with a warm room waiting just upstairs from Auberge.

Special rates are available for guests joining us for festive celebrations, or make a night of it with our Culinary Destination Dinner, Bed & Breakfast package. With just eight rooms, booking ahead is recommended during the holiday season.
